

We are excited for our new association with IR Global, a multi-disciplinary professional services network that provides advice to companies and individuals in over 155 jurisdictions.

As a provider of global corporate, accounting, administrative and secretarial services, with over 30 years of experience, Pagecorp Group aims in offering high quality services in Cyprus and abroad.

Through the years, we have established strong relationships with professional associations and affiliates in many jurisdictions, and through our association with IR Global, we aim to further expand our business community and grow our portfolio of international partners. We strongly believe in bringing positive change in the professional corporate services sector and share IR Global's founding philosophy of staying one step ahead, always based on ethical principles.

We look forward to the exciting opportunities of this new cooperation!

About IR Global

IR Global firms consist of the world's leading legal, accountancy and financial advisers, recommended exclusively by jurisdiction and practice area. IR Global ensures that clients have the highest quality niche expertise available to them.

IR Global's global network cultivates a giving mentality and puts the client's needs first. IR Global focuses on providing results in consideration of long-term strategic goals.

Forward thinking clients now have a credible alternative which is open, cost effective and flexible.

Find out more on
www.irglobal.com